

MARRIAGE CONTRACT

I believe marriage is a sacred union of souls that should be preserved at all costs and dissolved only in the most outrageous of exigencies.

Accordingly, I pledge my full commitment to our marriage, and I demonstrate by this instrument that I am holding nothing back:

If I should ever unilaterally file for divorce, at that same moment and without further recourse, I concede to my spouse full custody of the children of this marriage and full ownership, use and enjoyment of our family home and all other marital assets.
