

Dear Cops:

(or Feds, Navy Seals, SWAT-jockeys, GestSApo commissars or whatever)

Please don't kill my dogs

They're loud and boisterous, but they love people, even gun-wielding thugs, and they don't deserve to die just because you're a coward-for-hire.

Right now someone just like you could be raiding your mother's house - killing her pets. You should be very proud of yourself.
